SOCIAL WORK

BSW

WHAT IS SOCIAL WORK?

Empower people. Build communities. Create change

A Bachelor of Social Work at UITM prepares you to make a real difference in people's lives. The programme develops your understanding of human behaviour, social systems, and community dynamics while building essential skills in communication, empathy, and problem-solving. You'll learn to support individuals, families, and groups in overcoming life's challenges through evidence-based approaches and professional care.

The programme combines theory with field experience, helping you understand social issues from both local and global perspectives. With guidance from experienced social workers and lecturers, you'll graduate ready to work in social services, education, healthcare, and community development, improving lives and strengthening communities.

THE WAY WE TEACH

At UITM, learning goes beyond the classroom. You'll take part in workshops, discussions, and case studies that help you understand real social challenges and develop the skills needed to address them effectively and ethically.

Our lecturers and field experts bring years of experience from social services, healthcare, and community organisations. Their guidance ensures that you gain both theoretical knowledge and practical understanding of how to make a meaningful impact in people's lives.
